BSA/AML Audits and Reviews

A BETTER WAY for financial institutions to manage compliance

BSA/AML compliance never gets simpler.

Instead, year after year, we see more layers of complexity that make it more challenging for banks to comply with the Bank Secrecy Act and Anti-Money Laundering requirements.

Identifying, testing, managing, and controlling such risks require vigilance and someone to keep an eye on the minutiae.

We're those eyes.

In addition, we bring you the knowledge and expertise to ease your team's strain and workload and prepare you for your next exam. We also ensure that you have a solid plan in place to address your BSA/AML obligations for the long term.

Brian Crow, a nationally recognized BSA/AML expert who regularly presents at BOL's BSA/AML Top Gun Conferences, leads TCA's BSA/AML team.

That team comprises seven former bankers who are skilled at spotting and correcting the most common problems—inadequate systems, documentation, procedures, or staffing levels—and addressing the subtle, complex risks specific to your institution.

During engagements, we work collaboratively with your team and provide daily updates—something that's invaluable in resolving challenges throughout the engagement.

We think it's A Better Way than finishing a review and handing you a report with surprises and intimidating to-do lists.

You also can expect guidance from BSA/AML specialists through TCA's RCM Hotline, routine check-ins that keep
